BROOKLYN YOUNG MOTHERS' COLLECTIVE ANNOUNCES BROADWAY UNDER THE BRIDGE
A One-Night Production Featuring Broadway's Ana Gasteyer

Brooklyn, NY, March 3, 2009 – The Brooklyn Young Mothers' Collective (BYMC) is delighted to announce the production of Broadway Under the Bridge, a one-night event to benefit the Brooklyn Young Mothers' Collective.

This event features DUMBO's Ana Gasteyer and Kate Reinders, among other Broadway talent. This group of performers is made up of true friends. In that spirit, the cabaret will feature songs of friendship, family, and support.

The event will be held in DUMBO's Galapagos Art Space. In addition to Ana Gasteyer, the event features Broadway's Sarah Litzsinger (Beauty and the Beast), Megan McGinnis (Little Women), Kate Reinders (Wicked), Cathy Trien (Gypsy), Christopher Sloan (Cabaret) and Jessica-Snow Wilson (Spelling Bee). The event chairwoman is Kate Reinders. Doors to the performance open at 7:30 p.m. Tickets to the performance cost $75 and are available to the public.

Prior to the performance, guests are invited to join New York City artist Robert S. Greenberg and Broadway Under the Bridge Chairwoman, Kate Reinders, at a wine and cheese reception featuring Mr. Greenberg's "Frog Skins." This exhibit displays transparent layers of acrylic paint and gold leaf depicting the translucent skins of endangered tropical tree frogs. The reception begins at 7:00 p.m. Tickets to the reception and performance cost $125 and are available to the general public.

Guests are also invited to purchase VIP private pod seating. This option includes tickets for 10 to the artist reception and following performance. The seats are located in a private, stage-front seating pod. This ticket option costs $1,000 and is available to the general public.
